CENTER FOR INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAMS

Jeanette Bryson, Director

Andrews University English Language Institute (AU-ELI)

AU-ELI offers an intensive English Language study program to help students whose native language is not English develop the academic skills needed to succeed in their degree programs. It is designed to improve the understanding, speaking, and writing of English through the study of reading, grammar, vocabulary building, composition, and oral and aural practice. Classes are offered at the basic, intermediate, and advanced levels. Students are required to take an English placement test and are placed accordingly in appropriate levels. The international student must register for at least twelve "clock hours" of instruction per week.

Basic-level students may take only English courses (ENSL125, 126, 127, 128). Students are usually promoted to Intermediate English after one or two semesters in Basic. (Students entering the program with little or no English typically require two semesters to complete this level.)

Intermediate-level students are required to take ENSL135, 136, 137, 138. In addition, intermediate students may take one regular university course, or ENSL155 and/or ENSL165. Students are usually ready for Advanced English after one semester in Intermediate.

All advanced-level students are required to take ENSL145, 167, and 168. In addition, they may be required to take ENSL155 as indicated by interview and placement test results. ENSL165 is optional. To maintain full-time student status, advanced students are expected to take some regular courses concurrently. Successful completion of Advanced English requires passing a comprehensive Exit Exam. Most students exit the program after one semester in Advanced.

Students who complete the prescribed Advanced Level classes, with a grade of B or better, and who take the CIEP Exit Exam and pass will be granted a certificate of completion. The certificate indicates that the student has completed the intensive program, English as a Second Language.

A student enrolled in ELI is released from the program after achieving one of the following levels of English proficiency (although some departments may require higher scores):

1. Successful completion of Advanced English and the ELI exit exam
2. A paper-based TOEFL score of 550, with no section score lower than 52, and with a TWE of 5.0 or a passing grade on the essay section of the ELI exit exam
3. A computer-based TOEFL score of 213, with no section score lower than 19 (20 in writing)
4. A MELAB score of 80, with no section score lower than 77

ADVENTIST COLLEGES ABROAD/ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

International students from colleges which are members of the ACA Consortium have the opportunity to study at Andrews University and earn Andrews credit which can be transferred to the student's home college. ACA students may take regular classes after completing English requirements (as above). In addition to course work, ACA students experience American culture by participating in a variety of field trips and activities.

ACTION AMERICA

Action America offers short-term intensive language study, combined with cultural and professional experiences and travel, for non-credit students.

Participants must be at least 16 years of age and must acquire a student visa for entry into the United States. The application for Action America includes the information needed for the I-20. After receiving the I-20 document from Andrews University, the student will need to make an appointment with the American Consulate in the country of origin to apply for the visa. One four-week intensive is offered in July and a six-week intensive is held in January/February. Customized sessions can be arranged for groups of twelve or more.
